The Elanco Inventions Competition

Class 1 Livestock (inc. wool) equipment & technology

Winner – Charlie Webb Back Up Charlie

The Back-up Charlie is a duel lane race that is flexible in that it can be in a bundle formation, or straight and anywhere in between. The laneways also vary in width catering for all sizes of sheep through to lambs. It is fully portable and can be used in an existing yard or stand or stand alone and therefore it has so many applications.

2nd Andrew McFarland, Adjustable Width Cattle Race

3rd Rick Luhrs, Lamb Weigh Cradle

Class 2 Farm machinery & technology (inc. soil, water & fencing)

Winner – Harry Green and David Franklin Native Grass Applicator

The Native Grass applicator consists of a 2 meter wide hopper with augers moving materials across an adjustable opening allowing material to be sucked into a vent and air spreading system.

2nd Mark Gubbins, Roll Rover Tracker

3rd Stu Wilder, Safe T Level

Class 3 Animal Health and Welfare

Winner Gallagher Gallagher Dashboard Lite

The Dashboard Lite is an app for android and Apple mobile phones. It's designed to allow farmers to quickly check and record animal data on their phone when they're out and about on the farm. It enables them to look up animal details from visual tag number and record notes for them right then and there.

Class 4 Farm, house & garden – gadgets & technology

Winner Barry Bennett Dual Way Gate Stopper

The Dual Way Gate Stop is a simple way to stop a gate and not have to chase it when opening and closing. It can fit any size gate by having the correct size clamp allowing the stop lever to catch on the ground. When not in use it simply clamps to the side of the gate.

2nd Scott Atkins, Firewood Vice
