1. Crude Protein determined by analysis. 3 points for each 1% to the nearest whole number.
2. Metabolisable Energy (ME) as determined by analysis. 6 points for each 1% to the nearest whole number.

DISCLAIMER:

The laboratory test results used to judge this competition are based entirely on the samples as received. Each entrant is requested to ensure that the sampling procedure is in accordance with Livestock Logic recommendations. However, the organisers and sponsors can not guarantee that the samples are representative of the lot from which it was taken and take no responsibility for how the test results are used.

JUDGES DECISION

Should the Judge determine that an entrant has been entered in the wrong class, the Judge, in their absolute discretion, shall transfer it to the correct class. The Judge's decision shall be final and not subject to any questioning or appeal.
